Friday meruing, a man named Thomas Bos ion, living about a mile west of Greenville Floyd county, Ind., committed suicide by hanging. From what we can learn, he has lead a life of dissipation for some years, and has often told his family that he intended to hang himself. About two years ago he bought a suit of clothes which he said he tended for his burial suit. He was found by his family, about 5 o'clock, suspended by a rope on the porch of his dwelling. The nicide was a man about 65 years of age, and has lived in Greenville township for many years. He is said to have been a niet and peaceable man, and had the esneem of his neighbors and acquaintauces, but of late years was much addicted to strong drink. An inquest was held over his body, and a verdict rendered in accordance with
